Professor T. M. Sonneborn
Department of Zoology
Indiana University
Bloomington, Indiana

Dear Professor Sonneborn:

I am writing to let you know that we have been able to fill the position about which I wrote you on April 6.

Since it is difficult to find assistants just now, and it was necessary for us to fill the opening as soon as possible, we took the first suitable candidate who was able to come at a fairly early date.

Sincerely yours,

M. Demerec
